Mr Harrison,

I have made it clear in previous correspondence that I find you to be dishonest. So obviously I have no trust in your words.

My reading of the Judges direction is that he is asking for reason why the stay is lifted.

"and whether the stay should be lifted and a new scheduling order issued"

So I am providing my reasoning.

If I refer to our previous Joint Statement #Dkt 24 it has a section thus,

1. Nature and Complexity of the Case

A. Plaintiff's Position

Baylis asserts the following

As I don't trust you or anything you say or write, and as you have definitely been wrong and mistaken in this case, then I will not give credence to any of your opinions about what I should include in a "JOINT" status report unless I see my own reason to, any more than if you and I made a film together wherein I was in charge of creating the animations.

Kind regards

Hi, Trevor,

I don't think the Court wants us to be arguing the positions of the parties for this, it only wants to know the case status from our perspective and if the stay should be lifted and a new scheduling order issued. I assume your position is that the court should lift the stay and we should proceed with the litigation?

Best,

Jonah Harrison

RE: Baylis v Valve _ Order- Dkt 67 Mar 18, 2025 - Court now DIRECTS the parties to file a joint status report

Attached for your review is a draft "position of plaintiff" section for the Joint status report for the Court.

I apologize for any gramma or formatting issues as I am dyslexic and struggle with such things.

You may adjust such things on my behalf if you wish or let me know of any corrections I should make.

Kind regards
